Createspace. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 286 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.7in. from the farther side of beyond (a collection of novellas to keep you up at night), is a book of thrillers by Peggy Randall-Martin, author of So Far Behind. You asked for a collection of her works and she was listening. This book includes one true life experience and six of her favorite tales that will take you to the edge and teeter on the razor-thin line between what is real and that unknown place inside us where fear thrives and curls ready to strike. A Good Sleep 4 Murder, is the story of Adam Duncan who will stop at nothing to get what he wants. During the final days of his marriage, he developed a mind-bending plan to save his matrimonial union. If it works who will save his wife from him And when will it spread to a home near you Abilene, Sweet, Sweet, Abilene, I tell you this story now because the people who lived it are all dead; anyway that's what I'm told. My hope is that this resurrection will be the nemesis needed to call those memories forth because then and only then, will I be able to rest. Are You Scared Yet When O'Neal Bradley discovered the body of her best friend, she didn't know her name was next on the killers list. And she couldn't have known that her home was the looking glass through which the killer could place her in the cross-hairs of a sniper rifle and watch every move she made. Her life was no longer her own and she hid in the only place available - in plain sight. Backside of the Mirror, When Whitley Wickingham received notice of her grandmother's death,...
